

The initial contract was the site enabling works for the construction of the largest soft drinks concentrate plant (45,000 m²) in Europe from a Greenfield site in Ballina, Co. Mayo. The scope of works was extended to include the construction of the building foundations, the 800 m long entrance road, site service ducting, watermains and fire mains, weighbridges, internal access roads, concrete paved truck parks and car parks.

Ballina Beverages Concentrate Plant – Civil Works

Client – Atlantic Industries Ltd (Coca Cola)

Engineer – Bechtel International

Construction Period – June 1998 to April 2000

Value - €10 Million